

Galyna Shmidt,
WWEA Vice President
Board Member of the Ukrainian Wind Energy Association

Galyna Shmidt is a Board Member of the Ukrainian Wind Energy Association, in June 2022 elected as a Vice President of the World Wind Energy Association.

Galyna is a Ukrainian wind energy expert with 25 years' experience. Her key areas of expertise include analytical information on wind power development in Ukraine including environmental issues. The author of more than 100 publications devoted to renewable energy sources, wind power, energy efficiency and energy saving issues; a co-author of the first Ukrainian children book about wind power "Secrets of Wind".

In 2020 awarded national "Ecotransformation prize" (Ukrainian Eco-Oscar) for her significant contribution to the "green" transformation of Ukraine. At the 18th World Wind Energy Conference in Rio de Janeiro Galyna Shmidt was awarded the World Wind Energy Award 2019 for her outstanding achievements in spreading wind energy in Ukraine and worldwide.